

Damineh Mycroft

Damineh Mycroft is an investing principal for Boeing HorizonX Ventures. She manages Boeing's existing venture programs and looks for new partnerships in the Bay Area. At Boeing, Damineh has held positions in a variety of functions from financial planning to business operations on government and commercial satellites. She also managed and led the relationship with Defense Contract Audit and Management agencies. She was selected for the Boeing Leadership Rotation Program, and after graduating from the program, Mycroft was named the 737 Financial Planning and Analysis manager, a position she held for two years before transitioning to Boeing HorizonX Ventures.